AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE RIDE PROGRAM

Revised Date: May 17, 2012

MONONA, IOWA

HOST: Iowa Quarter Horse Association District 2

DATE: October 6, 2012

LOCATION: Scenic View Ranch, Monona, IA

FEES: $25 per adult
$10 per youth age 18 and under
$10 per non-rider

BACKGROUND: Scenic View Ranch is located in northeastern Iowa in its own little valley, with the Yellow River running through the ranch. For those interested in fishing for trout in the Yellow River, you will need a proper license from the Department of Natural resources. Additionally, Lloyd Johanningsmeir's ranch raises elk, buffalo and wild boar. Participants will enjoy the fall foliage and opportunity to see local wildlife.

ITINERARY: The weekend event will host a Trail Ride and Trail Challenge. The morning trail ride will start at 9 a.m. The Trail Challenge will start after the noon lunch break at approximately 2 p.m. After the challenge, riders will have the opportunity to enjoy a late afternoon/evening ride in the Elk Preserve. Take part in the hog roast/potluck dinner at the campground. The dinner is an additional fee for Trail Challenge participants only. For those sign-up for the Trail Ride, your dinner is included in your Ride fee.

For non-riders, there will be hayride to the game preserve to see the elk.

DIRECTIONS: 409 Old Sixteen Road, Monona, IA 52159
