New AQHA Rules

Take a look at the AQHA rule changes effective January 1.

At the 2010 AQHA Convention, many showing rules were voted on that will take effect January 1, 2011. Check out which rules have changed before next year's show season starts.

All-Around Events

Cotton or ear plugs in horses' ears will be legal, as well as the use of slip-on easy-care boots. In the past, this decision was left up to the discretion of the judges.

"The show committee made the recommendation to allow them, and they are now legal," Hemphill said.

Novice youth and novice amateurs are now eligible to show any horse without filling out a novice permit. The novice and the horse's owner can show the same horse at the same show, as long as it's not in that same novice youth or novice amateur class.

New Class

Green jumping is a new class that will follow the rules of AQHA's other green classes. The horses will show at lower heights.

Cowboy Mounted Shooting

The Cowboy Mounted Shooting Association has teamed up with AQHA to allow American Quarter Horse owners to earn points beginning in 2011. A limited number of CMSA shows will have AQHA-approved classes, including Battle in the Saddle, July 4-9 in Oklahoma City.

Leasing to Show

Beginning in 2011, any youth or amateur exhibitor can lease a horse to show in AQHA events. To show a leased horse, an exhibitor needs two pieces of paper: a showing lease form from AQHA and a copy of the detailed agreement or contract between the horse's owner and the lessee.

ASK AN EXPERT

I am planning to put in an air circulation fan in my barn next spring. While I have some time to make plans this winter, what are all the things I should consider?

Why wait until the spring to gain benefits of air circulation? With the proper fans installed, barns and arenas can take advantage of good air circulation year-round by providing destratification in the winter and cooling in the summer.
