

July 26 $199,200 Gordon Mobley Futurity - Indiana Grand - Race 5
Analysis by Racing Ace Jennifer Hancock 2-8-1-7

#2 Stone Toasted drew clear from the field in her trial to break her maiden. She has never finished off the board as she placed second in her first out in May. Jockey Christian Esqueda has the call on #8 Ms Fool Me Once. Esqueda was in the irons for the filly's first two races, when she failed to hit the board. She comes into the final with the fastest qualifying time and a two-race win streak. #1 Cant Catcha Corona has been perfect in both of his freshman starts, and you get the bonus of the entry with #1a Jess A Devil. #7 Put Ten Across is the highest money earner in the field and enters the final with wins in both of his last two races.

Ace Selections:

Jen #3 Indy Bred Chick
Martha # 7 Put Ten Across
Jennifer # 2 Stone Toasted
John # 2 Stone Toasted
Denis # 6 DNA Dales Quick Cat

July 26 $365,260 TQHA Sale Futurity (RG2) - Retama Park - Race 11
Analysis by Racing Ace Martha Claussen 4-7-2-6

This should be a thrilling renewal of the TQHA Sale Futurity, restricted to horses going through the ring of the 2013 TQHA Yearling Sale. Past winners include world champion Oak Tree Special and Supreme Race Horse Azoom. Two Texans, Toby Keeton and Jerry Windham have ruled the big events in Quarter Horse racing this year, with Keeton training Kiss My Hocks, the #1 ranked 2-year-old and Windham breeding upset Rainbow Futurity (G1) winner Trendi. They combine in the TQHA Sale Futurity with #4 Sixes Down. The fifth-fastest qualifier will be ridden by leading rider Luis Vivanco, who won the 2013 stakes with the Keeton-trained Won to Watch. Guy Hopkins has a nice filly in #7 Miss Corleone, who has won her last two starts, recording the third-fastest time in trials on July 11. #2 Favorite Eagle is a well-bred juvenile from the barn of Trey Wood; lightly raced, but would be no surprise. Fastest qualifier #6 Grey Daze faltered in the John Deere Juvenile Challenge at Sam Houston but could give trainer Leon Bard his second TQHA Sale Futurity win.

Ace Selections:

Jen # 4 Sixes Down
Martha # 4 Sixes Down
Jennifer # 4 Sixes Down
John # 6 Grey Daze
Denis # 2 Favorite Eagle
