

Hialeah Park, known as "the world's most beautiful race course," moves into the final two days (20 races) of its 2013-14 Quarter Horse season.

By all accounts, this season –the 5th Quarter Horse meet since live racing returned to the iconic South Florida racing palace in 2009-10– has been a smashing success.

Hialeah Park will go out with a bang this weekend as racing secretary Matt Crawford has put together a pair of stakes-rich ten-race programs this Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday's card includes the $20,000-added AQHA Maiden Challenge at 300 yards, the $30,000-guaranteed South Florida Quarter Horse Invitational (for horses that did not qualify for Sunday's South Florida Quarter Horse Derby) at 440 yards, the $30,000-added Sunshine State Derby at 400 yards, and the $30,000-added Miami-Dade County Stakes at 440 yards.

Hialeah Park Selections For Saturday February 22 By John Hernandez
Race	Selections	Race	Selections
1	6-3-2-5	6	9-3-2-10
2	2-3-4-6	7	2-4-5-3
3	3-4-6-7	8	5-6-10-7
4	1-6-4-7	9	5-10-2-6
5	5-3-10-1	10	7-5-2-9

Follow the Racing Aces on Twitter @HorseRacingAces and on Facebook!

The Racing Aces is a fan education program initiated by the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) which began in June 2010. The Racing Aces are individuals who have been involved in American Quarter Horse and Thoroughbred racing as handicappers, racing writers and publicists. The major goals of the Racing Aces program are to promote the sport, provide fan education services and help to develop new fan bases.

Helpful Horse Racing Websites

Thoroughbred:

Daily Racing Form Equibase The Paulick Report www.drf.com www.equibase.com www.paulickreport.com

Quarter Horse:

AQHA
Stallionesearch
Sure Bet Racing News

www.aqha.com/racing www.stallionesearch.com www.surebetracingnews.com

For more information on live racing, handicapping or future Racing Ace appearances, visit the American Quarter Horse Association website at aqha.com/racing or follow us on Twitter @HorseRacingAces!