

AQHA Judges Workshop February 3-4, 2020 Rome, Italy

A new year, a new opportunity for AQHA judge education! Join us February 3-4, 2020, in Rome, Italy, for an optional AQHA Judges Workshop, held in conjunction with the AQHA European Summit. The workshop is offered free to current AQHA members and will be co-hosted by the American Paint Horse Association. We encourage you to attend for a chance to connect and learn with APHA and AQHA judges from around the world!

The classes that will be covered in this judges workshop include halter, hunter under saddle, ranch riding, showmanship, horsemanship, western pleasure, western riding, Versatility Ranch Horse trail and ranch cow work.

Please note that all AQHA international judges are required to view the Judges Workshop by January 31, 2020, that will take place in Dallas via American Quarter Horse University as a part of their annual education and certification before judging any 2020 AQHA-approved show or class. This will be available online by January 6, 2020.

For more information regarding AQHA international judge education and certification in general, please contact AQHA Senior Director of Judges Patti Carter at pcarter@aqha.org.

Looking for additional opportunities to connect with AQHA members in the European membership region? Look no further! Mark your calendars for the 2020 AQHA European Summit, January 30 - February 1, 2020.

At the summit, AQHA, in partnership with the Associazione Italiana Quarter Horse, is excited to host a business summit and show management day. Current AQHA members can attend both days free. Please find a general schedule below.

Thursday, January 30	Welcome Reception 6 p.m.
Friday, January 31	Business Summit Day 8 a.m.
Saturday, February 1	Show Management Day

8 a.m.

For more information regarding the AQHA European Summit, please contact international@aqha.org and submit your RSVP by December 16, 2019.

AQHA is excited to offer these upcoming educational opportunities for AQHA members and international judges. We hope to see you in Rome!