Please accept the above-described horse as eligible for participation in the American Quarter Horse Association's Racing Challenge. I agree to be bound by all rules and conditions of the program, together with amendments thereto, and AQHA's decisions regarding the program's implementation. A testing administration fee of $150 accompanies this nomination. Additionally, a hair testing fee of $150 must be paid for all qualifiers to the Challenge Regional final to comply with the Condition of Entry hair testing mandate. This fee is due in advance of their hair sample being submitted or will be collected with the sustaining payment if no trials are anticipated. Note that up to (3) of the next fastest qualifiers may submit hair to be considered for the final in the event a horse with a faster time is deemed ineligible. Both fees are non-refundable and in addition to any other fees related to participation in an AQHA Challenge race.
