A review committee will be appointed to evaluate national officer candidate past performance as an AQHYA officer or director. This review committee may be comprised of members of the Youth Activities Committee, select AQHA staff and other members appointed by the AQHYA Advisory Board. A rubric for internal use by the review committee will be used to evaluate past performance.

Note about Officer Nominations
As stated in the AQHYA Bylaws, any AQHYA regional director is eligible to run for and accept a nomination for an officer position if he or she has completed one year of service and complied with the requirements set forth in this guide and the AQHYA Bylaws. Nominations for officer will be accepted prior to officer candidate speeches at the Youth Excellence Seminar. Candidates may accept a nomination presented by a member from the floor, or candidates may nominate themselves.

Note about Director Replacement
If a newly-elected regional director is elected to an office, he or she gives up his or her regional directorship and is replaced by the next highest scoring director candidate in his or her respective region.
CAMPAIGNING FOR OFFICER AND DIRECTOR

Campaigning Prior to the Youth Excellence Seminar
Each candidate will have his or her picture and a short profile published in a pre-Youth Excellence Seminar email sent from AQHA. The profile will be written by the staff at AQHA based on information provided in each candidate’s application.

Additional measures taken by individual candidates might include the following measures with the purpose of promoting his or her platform and qualifications for the AQHYA officer or director position:

• contact state and regional youth affiliate members
• attend state and regional youth affiliate meetings
• use social media sites to promote platform and qualifications
• write letters, mail flyers, and make phone calls

Campaigning at the Youth Excellence Seminar
Upon arrival in Amarillo for the Youth Excellence Seminar, candidates are assigned half of a provided eight-foot table in the designated areas for their campaign materials. All of the campaign materials must fit on the table and cannot be hung. All other posters or materials will be removed by AQHA staff. Candidates are responsible for removing all materials immediately after the Youth Excellence Seminar is concluded or will be charged a clean-up fee.

In addition to posters, youth are also given the opportunity to use one other form of promotion, such as pens, fans, buttons, etc., which may be distributed to youth at the seminar. Candidates are asked to avoid materials that could be used as noise makers or might deface property. Past AQHYA officers or directors will tell you the quality of your campaign is more important than the quantity of give-a-ways, so keep in mind personal contact with the membership is much more important than any material offerings you might have.

As a campaigning youth, it is important to be considerate of the host facilities and adjoining property, so please do not hang posters or hand out goodies at the hotel or outside of designated areas.
CANDIDATE RESPONSIBILITIES AT THE YOUTH EXCELLENCE SEMINAR

As a candidate for AQHYA officer or director, your first responsibility will be to attend the mandatory candidates’ meeting on the first day of the seminar. Following this meeting all candidates will participate in the interview process (details about the interview process are outlined below).

During the first evening reception, you may have the opportunity to be introduced to the participants of the AQHYA Youth Excellence Seminar as a candidate for office. This opportunity will allow you to give a two- to three-sentence background on yourself and your reasons for campaigning.

Your final responsibility is to deliver your prepared speech and answer an impromptu question prior to elections for your position (details about the speech and impromptu question are outlined on p. 13-14).

Each candidate for AQHYA officer and director will interview with an interview panel at the Youth Excellence Seminar. Interviews are typically conducted on the first day of YES following a mandatory candidate meeting.

The interview panel is comprised of various individuals who are familiar with AQHA, AQHYA, and the responsibilities of the youth officers and directors. Members of the interview panel may be chosen from the current AQHYA officers, past AQHYA officers and directors, affiliate youth advisors, members of the youth advisory board, AQHA staff, or other interested parties.

Interviews are slated to last approximately five to six minutes and cover a variety of topics. Interviewers are given a list of prepared questions to ask each candidate. Each interviewer also supplies the panel with a question developed by him or herself.

Sample Interview Questions

- What would you bring to AQHYA as an officer or director?
- Describe your platform (or vision) and how you intend to see it through during your term as an officer or director.
- Describe a new program or activity you would like to see AQHA or AQHYA sponsor.
- What do you see as your greatest asset(s)/weakness(es)?
- Describe how you would promote teamwork within the group of officers and directors.
- What do you think it takes to be a successful AQHYA officer or director?

Tips for a Successful Interview

Whether you are seeking employment or election to a group such as AQHYA’s leadership team, there are many websites available to help you achieve success. If your interview for director will be your first experience with interviewing, it is definitely worth your time to research some of these valuable sites in order to perfect your interview skills. Below is a list of several of the most common interview tips that apply in this situation:

1. Conduct research about AQHYA. A successful interview starts with a solid foundation of knowledge on the part of the interviewee. You should understand the association and the requirements of the position. The more research you conduct, the more you will know about the association, and the better prepared you will be to answer interview questions.
2. Review common interview questions and prepare responses. Another key to interview success is preparing responses to expected interview questions. You know you will be facing an interview panel, so you should be prepared to answer a variety of questions from people with different questioning styles. Your goal is composing detailed yet concise responses, focusing on specific examples and accomplishments. A good tool for remembering your responses is to put them into story form that you can tell in the interview. There is no need to memorize responses, but rather develop talking points.

3. Dress for success. Plan out a wardrobe that fits the organization and its culture, striving for the most professional appearance you can accomplish. Remember that it’s always better to be overdressed than under—and to wear clothing that fits and is clean and pressed. You should also wear clothing that adheres to the AQHYA Event Clothing Guidelines (see p. 27).

4. Make good first impressions with everyone you encounter. A cardinal rule of interviewing is be polite and offer warm greetings to everyone you meet. Keep in mind that first impressions—the ones interviewers make in the first few second of greeting you—can make or break an interview. Make a strong first impression by dressing well, arriving early, and when greeting your interviewer, stand, smile, make eye contact, and offer a firm handshake.

5. Be authentic, upbeat, focused, confident, candid, and concise. Once the interview begins, the key to success is the quality and delivery of your responses. Your goal should always be authenticity, responding truthfully to interview questions. You want to provide focused responses that showcase your skills and experience. Provide solid examples of solutions and accomplishments, but keep your responses short and to the point.

6. Remember body language and avoid bad habits. While the content of your interview responses is the most important, poor body language can be a distraction or a reason not to elect you. Effective forms of body language include smiling, eye contact, solid posture, active listening, and nodding. Detrimental forms of body language include slouching, looking off in the distance, fidgeting, brushing hair back, touching face, chewing gum, and mumbling.

7. Ask insightful questions. Studies show that employers make a judgment about an applicant’s interest in the position by whether or not the interviewee asks questions. Smart interviewees prepare questions to ask days before the interview and add any additional questions that might arise during the interview itself.

8. Thank the interviewers. Common courtesy and politeness go far in interviewing; thus, the importance of thanking each person who interviews you should come as no surprise. When the interview comes to an end, thank each person who interviewed you.

Succeeding in interviews takes research, practice, and persistence. The more effort you put into your interview preparation, the more success you’ll see. Remember, many resources exist on Internet to help you prepare. Finally, seek a mentor to coach you through these valuable steps and practice interview questions.
CANDIDATE SPEECH AND IMPROMPTU QUESTION

Each officer and director candidate will give a three-minute prepared speech during the Youth Excellence Seminar. Each candidate’s prepared speech must be submitted for approval by June 15. Following his or her prepared speech, each candidate will be asked an impromptu question and given one minute to respond. Candidates will be allowed 30 seconds of preparation before responding to the question.

Candidates who run for both a director and an officer position should submit two speeches; one speech for his or her director campaign and one speech for his or her officer campaign. Each speech will be evaluated separately during the times listed below. In addition to separate speech scores, candidates will receive separate impromptu question scores.

Candidates for director will deliver their speeches during a regional breakout session, while candidates for officer will deliver their speeches at designated times following director elections.

As stated above, all candidate speeches are due by June 15; however, minor revisions may be made to your speech after the deadline provided you re-submit your speech accordingly.

Your speech is meant to give the AQHYA delegates a clear indication of your platform, goals, and qualifications for the position. Because this is the only time you are given the opportunity to address all delegates at once, a considerable amount of attention should be devoted to your speech’s preparation.

The impromptu question posed following the candidate’s prepared speech is meant to give the delegates a clear indication of the candidate’s depth of knowledge regarding AQHA, AQHYA, and issues facing the industry. Preparation for this question is as important as the development of your prepared speech. To prepare for your impromptu question, research potential topics and practice answering questions on the fly. Many of the tips for speaking in public and answering interview questions translate well to answering impromptu questions.

Tips for Speaking in Public

Though the content of your speech is determined by your platform, you should research general presentation skills to help you deliver the best speech possible. As for most topics, many websites are dedicated specifically to public speaking. Listed below are some of the most common tips to improve your speaking skills:

1. Body language is important. Standing, walking, or moving about with appropriate hand gestures or facial expressions is preferred to sitting down or standing still with your head down and reading from a speech.

2. Speak with conviction as if you really believe what you are saying. Persuade your audience effectively by providing examples and choosing your words deliberately. The material you present in your speech should have the same ingredients as that which are required for a written research paper, i.e. a logical progression from introduction (thesis statement) to body (strong supporting arguments, accurate and up-to-date information) to conclusion (re-state thesis, summary, and logical conclusion).

3. Do not read from notes. While it is acceptable to glance at your notes infrequently, reading from them for an extended period is highly discouraged. Speak loudly and clearly. Sound confident. Do not mumble. If you make an error, correct it, and continue; there is no need to make excuses or apologize profusely.

4. Maintain sincere eye contact with your audience. If you have difficulty remembering to make eye contact, practice the 3-second method. Look straight into the eyes of a person in the audience for 3 seconds at a time. Have direct eye contact with a number of people in the audience, and every now and then glance at the whole audience while speaking. Use your eye contact to make everyone feel involved.

5. Pause. Allow yourself and your audience a little time to reflect and think. Don’t race through your presentation and leave your audience, as well as yourself, feeling out of breath. If you are short of time, know what can be safely left out. If you have extra time, know what could be effectively added.

6. Add humor whenever appropriate and possible. Keep your audience interested throughout your entire presentation. Remember that an interesting speech makes time fly, but a boring speech is always too long to endure even if the presentation time is the same.

7. Use audio-visual aids or props appropriately. If you choose to use an audio-visual or a prop, be sure all of the necessary equipment is set up and working prior to your speech. Enhancing your speech with a visual aid or prop can be highly effective if the audience can see the demonstration and the visual does not detract from your message.

8. Know when to stop talking. Use a timer to time your speech when practicing at home. Terminate your speech with an interesting remark or an appropriate punch line. Leave your listeners with a positive impression and a sense of completion. Finally, remember to thank your audience.

Sample Impromptu Questions

- How would you help the association increase the number of AQHA and AQHYA memberships?
- How would you encourage cooperation among the affiliates in your region?
- How can AQHYA officers and directors work together to make AQHYA a better organization?
- Describe one program offered by AQHYA and explain how you would improve it.
- What makes you proud to be a member of AQHYA?
- Explain which AQHYA program or service has impacted you the most and why.
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Immediate Duties of Newly Elected Officers and Directors

Once the elections are over and scores have been tabulated, the new officers and directors will be announced during the final banquet. The newly elected officers and directors will be required to extend their stay in Amarillo one extra day for training and orientation regarding their next year of service. (See the Frequently Asked Questions on p. 31 for additional information.)

Youth Association Bylaws

The bylaws of the American Quarter Horse Youth Association provides for the officers and directors to determine the direction of the association. It also provides that AQHYA will be a division of the parent organization, the American Quarter Horse Association. Therefore, its activities are overseen by the AQHA, the Advisory Board, and the AQHA Youth Activities Committee, a committee appointed by the AQHA president.

Candidates for the AQHYA Board of Directors are responsible for being familiar with the AQHYA Bylaws prior to campaigning at the Youth Excellence Seminar. Please find bylaws at www.aqha.com/rulebook.

The first and foremost objective of AQHYA officers or directors is to be an ambassador for the American Quarter Horse Association and its youth association. When AQHYA was formed in 1970, its first Executive Committee and Board of Directors were very clear about what they expected from the association; those expectations are just as true today as they were more than 40 years ago.

As an officer or director of the American Quarter Horse Youth Association, you will be expected to uphold the objectives and purposes of the association. Article I, Section 2, of the AQHYA Bylaws defines these objectives and purposes as follows:

a. To improve and promote the American Quarter Horse breed;

b. To improve and develop the capabilities of youth, both individually and through group participation, in the breeding, raising and exhibition of American Quarter Horses;

c. To develop and improve scholarship, leadership and community interest and participation of young horsemen;

d. To encourage high moral character, sportsmanship and clean living among all its members;

e. To establish a means whereby youth members may work in conjunction with the American Quarter Horse Youth Activities Committee;

f. To create, foster and assist subsidiary affiliate youth associations composed of members of AQHYA;

g. To acquaint youth members and associations with the parent organization, AQHA, its structure and functions.

The descriptions of the duties of the AQHYA officers and directors are listed in the association bylaws, which can be found online at aqha.com. The responsibilities of both groups of elected officials are listed below.

AQHYA Officer Responsibilities (Responsibilities as outlined in AQHYA Bylaws are in italics, while responsibilities are in regular print.)

Specific Responsibilities of the President

1. The president shall be chief executive officer of the association and shall have general supervision of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the AQHA Executive Committee, and shall preside at all meetings of the members and the Board of Delegates. The president shall see that the bylaws, rules and regulations of AQHYA are enforced. The president will serve on the AQHA Youth Activities Committee.

2. The president is required to maintain communication between the AQHYA officers and the manager of AQHYA.
3. The president will take a lead role in assisting the manager of AQHYA with the planning of the Youth Excellence Seminar.

4. The president is encouraged to attend the annual AQHA Convention. During the AQHA Youth Activities Committee meeting at the convention, the president is required to present a report to the committee of AQHYA’s activities from the previous year. The report may be presented in a digital format if the president and first or second vice presidents are unable to attend the convention.

Specific Responsibilities of the First Vice President

1. In the absence of the president, the first vice president shall have the powers and perform the duties of the president. The first vice president shall also have the responsibility of maintaining communication between the AQHYA Officers and AQHYA Directors, in addition to other duties as may be prescribed by the president.

Specific Responsibilities of the Second Vice President

1. In the absence of both the president and the first vice president, the second vice president shall have the powers and perform the duties of the president. The second vice president shall also have the responsibility of maintaining communication between the AQHYA Officers and AQHYA Directors, in addition to other duties as may be prescribed by the president.

Specific Responsibilities of the Two Members

1. The two members shall also have the responsibility of maintaining communication between the AQHYA Officers and AQHYA Directors, in addition to other duties as may be prescribed by the president.

Responsibilities of Each AQHYA Officer

1. Each officer is required to attend one meeting/conference call per month for each of the following: officer team and officer and director team. RÉSUMÉ

Each candidate will submit either a functional, chronological, or combination résumé following an appropriate resume format. The résumé should be one page in length. The résumé is due June 1.

What is a résumé?
A résumé is a brief document that summarizes your education, employment history, and experiences that are relevant to your qualifications for a particular job for which you are applying.

Where do I start?
While résumé writing can be a challenge, the process will help you consider your strengths and weaknesses. It is important that your résumé highlights the qualifications that make you the best person for the job. Since the résumé for this position should be no longer than one page in length, you must prioritize which information to include and which to exclude.

Prior to writing your résumé, consider conducting research to learn what components make a strong résumé, what will make your résumé stand out, and how to format a résumé. There are many possible combinations of material to include in a résumé, but if you conduct a thorough search of resume writing sites, you will find many recurring tips and pieces of advice.

ESSAY ON CANDIDATE’S PLATFORM

Each candidate will submit a 500 word or less essay on his or her officer or director platform. This will be his or her platform for the year if elected to serve as an officer or director. The essay is due June 1.

What is a platform?
A platform is a statement of your beliefs and what you hope to accomplish if elected.

Where do I start?
In the application materials for AQHYA officer or director, your platform will be submitted in the form of a carefully worded essay. Traditionally, candidates in political campaigns use platforms to address topics that appeal to potential voters. Statements included in a candidate’s platform blend a candidate’s personal interests and goals as well as items of concern to voters.

Platforms may focus on one fully-developed issue or on a number of smaller, less developed issues, depending on the interests and scope of the candidate’s campaign goals. As a candidate for AQHYA officer or director, you might consider identifying areas of the association you believe need to be improved. You may also want to contact youth within your region, or the larger association, to question them about areas they feel warrant change.

It is important for candidates to note the AQHYA leadership team often works together to achieve common goals while considering the platform of individual officers and directors. These groups are organized by regions and committees. You may want to consider how you would utilize fellow officers, directors, or members of your committee to achieve your goals and include these ideas in your platform essay.

Consider the following questions prior to formulating your platform:

• What are my personal beliefs about AQHYA?
• What is my vision for the Association?
• What are my region’s strengths and weaknesses?
• What can I do to promote change?
• What goals can I implement to affect this change?
LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Each candidate will submit a total of two letters of recommendation. Letters of recommendation should be from individuals not related to the candidate. It is recommended, but not required, the candidate has one letter from his or her affiliate youth adviser. Do not send more than two letters of recommendation. Letters of recommendation are due June 1.

Options for submitting letters of recommendation:
1. Once the letters are complete, have the author seal the letter in an envelope, sign across the back of the envelope, and have the letter mailed (or delivered) to you. Enclose the two letters of recommendation with the application.
2. Have the author email the letters of recommendation directly to youth@aqha.org. The subject line of the email should be Letter of Recommendation for [Candidate’s Name].

PHOTOGRAPH OF CANDIDATE

Each candidate will submit a high-quality headshot of him- or herself with a signed photo permission to be used for publicity. The photo permission may be obtained from the photographer. The photo is due June 1.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- All candidate application materials must be received at AQHA by midnight on June 1 - not postmarked June 1.
- Hard copy or email applications will be accepted. It is the candidate’s responsibility to make sure AQYHA received the application. Late applications may not be accepted.
- If submitting via email, please submit to youth@aqha.org. The subject line of the email should be AQHYA Officer and Director Application Materials – [Your Name].

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

On average, how much time do AQHYA officers and directors devote to their duties per week?
- The time commitment varies depending on the time of year, number of conference calls scheduled, upcoming events, commitment level of the individual, etc.
- On average, officers spend 2 to 3 hours per week working on AQHYA duties; directors spend 1 to 2 hours per week working on AQHYA duties.

What type of promotional items or give-a-way materials should I bring to the Youth Excellence Seminar?
- The type of promotional items candidates choose to bring to YES varies from candidate to candidate. Promotional items in the past have included candy, buttons, sunglasses, pens, pencils, earbuds, etc.
- Many candidates attempt to creatively match their campaign slogan to their give-a-way. Examples include “Make the SMART choice! Vote for Tom” and the give-a-way is a pack of Smarties candy; “Win with Jessie!” and the give-a-way is a blue ribbon with Jessie’s picture and campaign slogan.
- It is not necessary for candidates to spend a large amount of money on promotional items, nor is it necessary for candidates to bring promotional items if finances or other situations prevent.

How many promotional items should I bring to the Youth Excellence Seminar?
- There are several factors that contribute to the number of promotional items a candidate could choose to bring to YES.
  1. The number of youth participants who attend YES is typically around 200.
  2. A candidate for officer would want to deliver his or her message to as many youth attendees as possible. On the other hand, a candidate for director may only want to target members of his or her region.
  3. A candidate who spends the majority of his or her time waiting for youth attendees to approach his or her table will not reach as many youth as a candidate who approaches attendees with the purpose of soliciting their vote.

Why are youth who turn 19 before January 1 of the year they are elected not allowed to be a candidate for officer or director?
- According to the AQHYA bylaws, members of AQHYA are “boys and girls 18 years of age or under. The age of the youth as of January 1 will be the age maintained the entire year.” For youths whose 19th birthday is prior to January 1, the membership card will expire on December 31. A youth must be a member of AQHYA the year they run for an officer or director position.
- A youth who turns 19 on January 15 maintains his or her youth membership for the rest of the year and may submit an application for office. A youth who turns 19 on December 15 will upgrade his or her youth membership on January 1 and may not submit an application for office.

What is the function of an AQHYA delegate?
- According to AQHYA bylaws, a youth affiliate exercises its voting privileges in AQHYA through its delegates. Four delegates from each affiliate vote for the officers and directors of AQHYA at the Youth Excellence Seminar.
- Delegates are selected by each affiliate pursuant to the individual affiliate’s bylaws or constitution. Names of affiliate delegates are submitted to AQHYA each year by the affiliate’s youth adviser.
- Substitutions to the delegate list must be provided in writing by the affiliate’s youth adviser by 5:00 p.m. on the first day of the Youth Excellence Seminar.
• Each affiliate may have more than one delegate submit an application for or be elected as AQHYA officer or director.

Do candidates need to register and pay the registration fee to attend the Youth Excellence Seminar?

• Yes, all candidates should register and pay for YES prior to the registration deadline.

Do candidates for officer and director need an adult chaperone to attend the Youth Excellence Seminar?

• Yes, all candidates for officer and director need an adult chaperone to attend YES.

What travel arrangements should candidates make regarding the Youth Excellence Seminar and the following officer and director training?

• Candidates are responsible for travel arrangements to and from YES.
• Candidates are responsible for hotel accommodations prior to and during YES.
• Newly elected officers and directors are required to stay one extra day after YES (Friday, July 12, 2019) for training and should plan their travel accordingly.
  o All candidates are advised to make flight arrangements to depart YES the day following the training (Saturday, July 13, 2019). Candidates who are not elected as an officer or director will be given the option to participate in the new board training in a limited way, or they may choose to depart the day following YES (Friday, July 12, 2019).
    ▪ If a non-elected candidate chooses to stay for the training, this individual will be responsible for expenses such as meals and lodging.
    ▪ AQHA is limited in its ability to chaperone youth who are not elected but opt to stay for the new board training, therefore those youth must clarify their attendance and request chaperoning from AQHA immediately following elections.
  o Candidates are advised to make travel arrangements that are conducive to change (i.e. do not book highly restrictive fares that do not allow changes to the itinerary). Candidates are responsible for any change fees.
  o If a candidate is uncomfortable or unwilling to travel on his or her own to or from YES, it is the candidate’s responsibility to make arrangements for a chaperone to accompany him- or herself.
  o AQHA will pay for hotel and food expenses of the newly elected officers and directors while they attend the training.
  o AQHA staff will assume chaperone duties of the newly elected officers and directors beginning with the first day of training through their departure following training.

What travel opportunities are extended to AQHYA officers and directors?

• Travel opportunities for AQHYA officers and directors may include, but are not limited to, the following:
  AQHA Convention
  IEA Finals
  AYHC Symposium
  AHC National Issues Forum
  Youth World Show
  National FFA Convention
  Youth Excellence Seminar

• The AQHYA officers are extended the first opportunity to attend events to represent AQHYA. Decisions regarding who will travel to represent the association are made on a case-by-case basis dependent upon available funds and the schedule of officers.
Occasionally, affiliate associations request a representative of AQHYA to attend the affiliate’s convention or awards meeting. In these situations, an officer or director residing within that region will be encouraged to attend. Should a representative be unavailable, the invitation will be extended to an officer or director residing in a neighboring region.

Each AQHYA officer or director is encouraged to attend his or her affiliate’s convention as well as frequent events sponsored by his or her affiliate.

As an AQHYA officer or director, you must be willing/able to travel not listed as an unaccompanied minor.

Chaperones for AQHYA officer and director travel are determined on a case-by-case basis. Arrangements will be communicated to officers, directors, and parents prior to each trip.

Which officer and director travel expenses are paid for by AQHYA?

AQHA may pay for all of part of officer and director travel expenses dependent upon available funds; however, AQHYA must approve expenses for each trip in advance. All travel arrangements, including flight and hotel reservations, will be made and approved by the youth department.

All flights will be made on a non-refundable, non-changeable basis. Any changes to tickets or reservations, which result in an extra charge, will be billed to the officer or director.

Any incidental charges (meals, tips, cab fare, etc.) for reimbursement will be turned into the youth department within 24 hours of conclusion of the trip. Please note that these expenses are also subject to approval. AQHA recommends you travel with a credit card when traveling alone.
