For results and coverage, visit www.aqha.com/level1championships.

The American Quarter Horse Association's Level 1 Championships are the pinnacle event for American Quarter Horse Level 1 exhibitors who qualified nationally or through affiliate qualifying methods to compete in each of the classes representing halter, English and western disciplines. More than 5,950 entries will compete at the 2016 AQHA Level 1 Championships for 260 champion titles between the three shows. This year's championships feature Rookie classes, sponsored by AQHA Corporate Partner B&W Trailer Hitches, and more age divisions for Level 1 competitors. Rookie and Level 1 are the two levels of AQHA competition designed for beginner to minimally accomplished competitors, respectively. The Level 1 Championships were designed to celebrate the accomplishments of these riders and their horses in an environment that provides education and fun competition.
